FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

EL RAY LEE, "THE BEGINNING"
Favorites Made New

LUFKIN, TX, April 1 2010 - East Texas country music legend El Ray Lee is happy to announce "The Beginning," a new release of 10 hit songs spanning the 60's, 70's and 80's. Hand selected by El Ray, these songs will take you back to the days of Marty Robbins, Conway Twitty, and Billy Joe Shaver. Songs include 'Teach Me to Forget,' 'You Gave Me a Mountain' and 'She's Gone to Houston.'

El Ray's covers make his country favorites new again, yet they have the reminiscent tone from days gone by. The album was engineered to perfection by Uncle Mickey Moody who produced hits for Freddy Fender. El Ray Lee has been in the music and entertainment business for decades, having been band-mates with Sonny Boy Williams #2, J. Frank Wilson, and even sold the song "You Don't Have Very Far To Go" to Merle Haggard. El Ray Lee is known in Lufkin and Angelina County for his realtor savvy as much as he is his musical talent, though. He has been a top producing realtor for several years, serving the Deep East Texas area. For more information about El Ray Lee and his new CD, visit www.elraylee.com.
